Property Description

A true rarity to hit the market is this extended chalet style house, located on superb plot with exceptional countryside views and privacy.

Main Particulars

Derbyshire Properties are delighted to present this true rarity to the open market. Built on the site of the old hat factory (1770) is this substantial detached chalet style house occupying a beautiful and private plot and benefiting from exceptional countryside views (Built between 1960-70 as a self build).

The property is set well back from the road and enjoys a peaceful location, it can be seen as a naturalist's paradise with an extensive garden and immediate access to a network of country paths

Lea Wood is a small hamlet of houses in the tree lined valley of the River Derwent and within the Lea Bridge Conservation Area. Lea Wood is situated between the villages of Crich, Lea and Holloway with the popular towns of Cromford, Wirksworth and Matlock a short distance away offering an array of amenities. We believe the property would ideally suit a family and an early internal inspection is absolutely essential to avoid disappointment.

Location

Located in the hamlet of Lea Wood, the wood is one of the best examples of ancient woodland in the area. Wild daffodils and bluebells flower here. The area is a haven for those who enjoy the outdoors, with direct access to the High Peak Trail, mature woodlands and canal-side walks. There is a great local pub, post-office and fabulous local butcher. You can take a walk down the Cromford Canal, which is part of the Derwent World Heritage site and lies less than half a mile away. The Cromford Mills complex is 1.5 miles on foot.
